

The Voice of the Southern African
Community in Israel

Vol. 36, No. 3

EYES WIDE OPEN

Countering the malignant global assault, a young South African brings together medical students from around the world to discover a caring Israel that responds to humanitarian global crises.

“Studying at IDC Herzliya allowed me to really Open-up to Israel and its people while getting a top notch education.”

Ronit Raier, Psychology, Johannesburg, South Africa.
